

SICA's URBAN SCULPTURE PARK May 9 - October 12, 2009

SCULPTURE 2009

SICA is launching the third year of its "urban sculpture park" throughout the City of Long Branch, the promenade along the Atlantic Ocean, in Pier Village, and at Monmouth University. There will be over 70 highly visible outdoor locations for the installation of outdoor sculpture, such as parks and open spaces, downtown sidewalks, and the sides of buildings for relief sculpture.

CALL TO ARTISTS

PRESENTED BY

20 THIRD AVE/
LONG BRANCH, NJ

TIMETABLE

Friday, March 13, 2009
Deadline for entries

Friday, April 3, 2009
All Artists are notified

Friday, April 24, 2009
Installations can begin

Saturday, May 9, 2009
Exhibitions opens

The artists participating in this annual event will be solicited nationwide to compete for the opportunity to have their work displayed in these scenic shore areas and viewed by hundreds of thousands of visitors. Maps showing the specific locations where these works are located will be available at SICA and many other locations. Information about the artists as well as information about the site sponsors of the park will also be on our website. The grand opening reception of the third year of this urban sculpture park is May 9, 2008, and will be in conjunction with HIGH RELIEF - SICA's State-wide High School Sculpture Competition.

OVER $1,000 IN CASH PRIZES AVAILABLE.

FOR MORE INFORMATION VISIT www.sica.org; OR CALL 732-263-1121