Fresh Meat Young Blood at SICA

Long Branch — SICA, The Shore Institute of the Contemporary Arts, 20 Third Ave., announces its 6th Annual Fresh Meat Young Blood Exhibition. This show has nothing to do with carnivorous activities, but is intended to highlight the "young blood" being released from NJ's art institutions. Master of Fine Art graduates from Mason Gross School of the Arts (Rutgers), New Jersey City University, and Montclair State University, are participating.

This year's new masters are Ozgur Gungor, Laura Hamilton, Sue Miller, Dot Paolo, and Joanna Wyzgowska from Mason Gross School of the Arts; Frank Gavere, Patti Jordan, Arlene Kaczka, Pierre McGuffie, and Teresa Owens from Montclair State University; and Richard Buntzen, and K. Shelton from New Jersey City University.

This exhibition will run from May 29 through July 3. A reception for the artist will be on Sunday, May 31st, from 3 - 6 pm.

The show and reception is free and open to the public.

SICA is a non-profit corporation whose purpose is to establish a uniquely stimulating and creative environment in which to experience the contemporary arts. The primary goal of the center is to increase the general public's accessibility, awareness and appreciation of the contemporary arts in central New Jersey.
